SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

About the first of March 1950, CH'EN Fan (陳反) came to Tokyo with the title of commercial representative, although he was not attached to the official Nationalist Government mission. He disclosed to friends that the real purpose of his visit was to establish contact with Japanese officials who had formerly served in Taiwan and were familiar with the island, including former Governor-General HASEGAWA Kiyoshi (長谷川 清). Through these persons, he hoped to secure Japanese aid in improving conditions in Taiwan and possibly even in furnishing military instructors.
